SECTION 2 BACKGROUND

The Police Reform Act 2002 is the Statutory basis for the establishment of the National Intelligence Model. To comply with minimum standards Police Forces should ensure that processes are in place to obtain information from detained persons through agreed policies and protocols

SECTION 3 POLICY STATEMENT

Nottinghamshire Police is committed to reducing crime and helping to create a just and safe county. Police strategies to tackle crime and criminality are dependant upon the utilisation of reliable intelligence sources. Properly assessed intelligence, gained from active criminals is frequently the most readily actionable. The identification of opportunities to collect such information from persons in custody and the subsequent use of that information, form a key part of our work in delivering a 'Safer Nottinghamshire for All'.

SECTION 4 LEGISLATIVE COMPLIANCE

This document has been drafted to comply with the general and specific duties in the Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000, Data Protection, Freedom of Information Act, European Convention of Human Rights and other legislation relevant to the area of policing such as, Employment Act 2002, Disability Discrimination Act 1995, Sex Discrimination Act 1975 and Employment Relations Act 1999.

Note:

The 'Code of Practice for Victims of Crime' and the 'Witness Charter' identifies specific requirements for updating victims and witnesses, along with the timescales within which they have to be updated. These procedural guides require that consideration is given to the victim/witness during any investigation. For further information refer to the 'Victims Code' and the 'Witness Charter' on the Force Intranet. These two procedures outline 'at what point in the investigation', 'when' and 'what information' has to be given.
