

Tattoos

Applicants should be aware that they should not have any tattoos that could cause offence. Tattoos are not acceptable if they:

- Undermine the dignity and authority of the office of Police Officer.
- Are garish or numerous or particularly prominent, ie. On the hands, neck, face or forearms.
- Could cause offence to members of the public or colleagues and/or invite provocation.
- This would include tattoos that are rude, lewd, crude, racist, sexist, sectarian, homophobic, violent or intimidating.
- Tattoos that display unacceptable attitudes towards women, minority groups or any other section of the community, or alignment with particular groups, which could give offence to members of the community, are unacceptable.

Applicants should declare any tattoos on the figures below.

I confirm I have read and understood the Home Office Guidelines concerning tattoos and detail below any such tattoos.
