Alarm URN Fees

The following NPCC approved charging structure is adopted by forces seeking to recover administration costs in respect of registration of security systems which terminate at a recognised Alarm Receiving Centre (ARC), Remote Video Response Centre (RVRC) for CCTV and System Operating Centre (SOC) for vehicle tracking. The administration fee is payable for:

- New Unique Reference Number (URN) applications
- New occupiers/owners of premises taking over existing security systems (systems retains false alarm history unless upgraded to DD243 2004)
- Existing user changing security company (system retains false alarm history unless upgraded to DD243 2004)

Where a security company cancels a URN, a period of 28 days grace should be given to allow another security company to take over the URN.

Where a security company applies to take over a URN from an existing company and/or maintenance contract, they may do so supported by the customer's authority.

The administration fee is not applicable when:

- A security company takes over another security company
- A security company ceases to trade and another company takes over the URNs within 28 days

Premises change name only (evidence will be required to ensure it is a change of name only and not change of owner/user)

Alarm registration (intruder)	£45.66
Alarm registration (panic alarm)	£45.66
Where a new occupier/owner of premises takes over an existing security system with one element the full fee will be payable	£45.66
Where a new occupier/owner of premises takes over an existing security system with both intruder and HUA elements a reduced fee will be payable	£68.50
The same fee (as above) will be payable where an existing user decides to change their security company	£68.50
For Lone Worker Devices (LWDs), the ARC may apply to the relevant police force for a URN, if the conditions of the ACPO police response to security systems (police requirements for lone work services) are complied with. The cost of the URN will depend on the number of systems monitored, as detailed in the table below.
Lone workers devices up to 10,000	£55.17
Lone workers devices 10,001 – 50,000	£82.76
Lone workers devices 50,001 and over	£110.35
