Dear

Request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

I write in connection with your request for information, which was received by Nottinghamshire Police on 01/01/2017.

Following receipt of your request searches were conducted within Nottinghamshire Police to locate the information you require.

RESPONSE

Under S 1 (1) (a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), I can confirm that Nottinghamshire Police does hold the information you have requested.

Please find below answers to your questions:-

"Nottinghamshire Police recognises the limitations of recording alternative subculture hate crimes within a catch-all hate crime "Other" category. The technical limitations of the crime recording system the force has had for many years has prevented the disaggregation of hate crimes beyond the main recorded strands. Nottinghamshire Police is now introducing a new crime recording system. Arrangements have been made for Alternative Sub-Culture Hate Crimes to be identified as a specific category of their own within hate crime recording under the new system. This is scheduled to come into effect in April this year (2016)".

I am inquiring if Nottinghamshire police have now identified Alternative Sub-cultures to be a specific category within hate crime recording, as mentioned above.

Nottinghamshire Police did introduce a specific recording category of Alternative sub-culture hate crime as planned. This came into force on 06/05/2016.

Complaints Rights

Your attention is drawn to the enclosed review procedure, which details your right of complaint.

Are you dissatisfied with your response?

Nottinghamshire Police has a duty to implement a complaints process in relation to Freedom of Information Act requests. If you are not content with our response, you may appeal, this process is known as an 'Internal Review'

Internal reviews are intended to be a fair and impartial means of reviewing the original request process.

You can appeal about your request if you:-

- Disagree with the Forces interpretation of your request;
- Believe the Force hold more information than has been disclosed to you;
- Disagree with the application of exemptions;

How do I appeal?

All appeals should be made in writing and sent to:-

Information Management
Nottinghamshire Police
Force Headquarters
Sherwood Lodge
Arnold
Notts
NG5 8PP

or alternatively freedomofinformation@nottinghamshire.pnn.police.uk

To deal with your appeal as quickly as possible please provide the unique identification number provided with your response and the reasons for your appeal.

Once we have received your request for appeal, your FOI response will be reviewed in full to identify any problems in the disclosure.

The review will be undertaken by someone different from, and preferably senior to, the original decision maker and this should be completed within 20 working days from receipt, in exceptional circumstances it may be extended by a further 20 working days.

What if I'm still not satisfied?

You can appeal to the Information Commissioner. You can contact the Information Commissioner Office at the following:-
