Request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

I write in connection with your request for information, which was received by Nottinghamshire Police on 20/02/2020.

Following receipt of your request searches were conducted within Nottinghamshire Police to locate the information you require.

RESPONSE

Under S 1 (1) (a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), I can confirm that Nottinghamshire Police does hold the information you have requested in part.

Please find below answers to your questions:-

Can I please ask these questions about your force under the Freedom of Information request:

- 1. Can you confirm whether your force gives suspected victims of domestic abuse replacement phones if theirs have to be seized?

Answer: - No Information Held, We do not provided replacement phones

- 2. If you have adopted this policy, when did you start it? How many phones do you have available to give to victims?

Answer: - No Information Held

3. *If you have not adopted this policy, do you intend to adopt it?
When would this be?

Answer: - No Information Held, there are no current plans to adopt a phone replacement scheme.

4. *If not, why have you chosen not to adopt it?

Answer: - Phones are seized only when absolutely necessary for domestic abuse cases. The expectation is that the officer dealing with the victim uses the phone kiosk on the day (usually whilst the suspect is in custody and the risk is removed) to download the material and returns the victims handset within hours. Victim's phones are only retained if the phone cannot be downloaded and needs to go to the digital investigation unit. If this is the case the victim is provided with an alarm (skyguard/home office)
