Request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

I write in connection with your request for information, which was received by Nottinghamshire Police on 07/07/2015.

Following receipt of your request searches were conducted within Nottinghamshire Police to locate the information you require.

Please find below answers to your questions:-

RESPONSE

Under S 1 (1) (a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), I can confirm that Nottinghamshire Police does hold some of the information you have requested.

Does your force have a written document that sets out long term objectives for communication, media and public relations activity? (e.g. a communications strategy)

- a. If yes, since when?
- b. Please attach a copy of the most recent version.

We don't have a current overarching communications strategy for the force. We do have a number of policies in terms of media and social media.

Do you have:

- a. a force structure chart showing where the communications department sits within the organisation?

We do not hold this information, however the Force Website will hold information on the various departments within Nottinghamshire Police and a structure can be obtained by examining the various departments.

- b. A department structure chart?

In which year was the communications department first established?

We do not hold a record of this information.

In which year was the communications department established in its current restructure?

2015

Who does the head of the communications department report to? (e.g. Chief Constable, Deputy Chief Constable, Superintendent).

To the Deputy Chief Constable

Does the head of the communications department sit on the force executive/command team?

Yes

a. If yes, is this as a voting member or in an advisory capacity?

In an advisory capacity

How long has the current head of communications held their position as head of department?

Since 20 April 2015

Disclosure Officer

Are you dissatisfied with your response?

Nottinghamshire Police has a duty to implement a complaints process in relation to Freedom of Information Act requests. If you are not content with our response, you may appeal, this process is known as an 'Internal Review'

Internal reviews are intended to be a fair and impartial means of reviewing the original request process.

You can appeal about your request if you:-

- Disagree with the Forces interpretation of your request;
- Believe the Force hold more information than has been disclosed to you;
- Disagree with the application of exemptions;

How do I appeal?

All appeals should be made in writing and sent to:-

Information Management
Nottinghamshire Police
Force Headquarters
Sherwood Lodge
Arnold
Notts
NG5 8PP

or alternatively freedomofinformation@nottinghamshire.pnn.police.uk

To deal with your appeal as quickly as possible please provide the unique identification number provided with your response and the reasons for your appeal.

Once we have received your request for appeal, your FOI response will be reviewed in full to identify any problems in the disclosure.

The review will be undertaken by someone different from, and preferably senior to, the original decision maker and this should be completed within 20 working days from receipt, in exceptional circumstances it may be extended by a further 20 working days.

What if I'm still not satisfied?

You can appeal to the Information Commissioner. You can contact the Information Commissioner Office at the following:-
