Request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

I write in connection with your request for information, which was received by Nottinghamshire Police on 16/10/2014.

Following receipt of your request searches were conducted within Nottinghamshire Police to locate the information you require.

Please find below answers to your questions:-

RESPONSE

Under S 1 (1) (a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), I can confirm that Nottinghamshire Police does hold the information you have requested.

What offences do you class as cyberbullying?

We do not recognise the term cyberbullying. It does not feature within crime or incident recording. Any case that can be regarded as being an example of Cyberbullying would possibly fall within one or another existing crime or incident recording categories. These categories are defined as standards at national level.

Do you have a cyberbullying policy in place?

We do not have a policy in place that relates directly to cyberbullying.

Does your force run training on cyberbullying?

See composite answer below

Does your force run training on sexting?

The Force has recently begun to roll-out training on a number of issues relating to Cybercrime. This will be delivered to its uniform staff, including new recruits and PCSO's. During this training Cyberbullying and its dangers are discussed and sexting is mentioned.

How many incidents of cyberbullying and how many incidents of sexting you had reported as a force for 2012, 2013 and 2014 to present for 11- 15 year olds and those aged 16 and above.

We do not hold this information

Complaints Rights

Your attention is drawn to the enclosed review procedure, which details your right of complaint.

Disclosure Officer – Paul Jeffery

Are you dissatisfied with your response?

Nottinghamshire Police has a duty to implement a complaints process in relation to Freedom of Information Act requests. If you are not content with our response, you may appeal, this process is known as an 'Internal Review'

Internal reviews are intended to be a fair and impartial means of reviewing the original request process.

You can appeal about your request if you:-

- Disagree with the Forces interpretation of your request;
- Believe the Force hold more information than has been disclosed to you;
- Disagree with the application of exemptions;

How do I appeal?

All appeals should be made in writing and sent to:-

Information Management
Nottinghamshire Police
Force Headquarters
Sherwood Lodge
Arnold
Notts
NG5 8PP

or alternatively freedomofinformation@nottinghamshire.pnn.police.uk

To deal with your appeal as quickly as possible please provide the unique identification number provided with your response and the reasons for your appeal.

Once we have received your request for appeal, your FOI response will be reviewed in full to identify any problems in the disclosure.

The review will be undertaken by someone different from, and preferably senior to, the original decision maker and this should be completed within 20 working days from receipt, in exceptional circumstances it may be extended by a further 20 working days.

What if I'm still not satisfied?

You can appeal to the Information Commissioner. You can contact the Information Commissioner Office at the following:-
