Request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

I write in connection with your request for information, which was received by Nottinghamshire Police on 14 November 2012.

May I please have the following information under the Freedom of Information Act.

How many sex offenders on the sex offenders register are housed in Rushcliffe, Broxtowe, Gedling, Mansfield, Newark & Sherwood and Bassetlaw and how many sex offences have there been in Rushcliffe, Broxtowe, Gedling, Mansfield, Newark & Sherwood, Bassetlaw and Ashfield committed by those on the said sex offenders register.

Following receipt of your request searches were conducted within Nottinghamshire Police to locate the information you require.

Please find below answers to your questions:-

RESPONSE

Under S 1 (1) (a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), I can confirm that Nottinghamshire Police does hold the information you have requested.

This information is not recorded in an easily retrievable format. We would be able to answer the first part of your request relating to the number of sex offenders housed in each area, however, since individuals on the Sex Offenders Register do not necessarily commit offences in the area where they reside, all offences committed by an individual would be required to be searched to establish the location where the offence was committed. To locate, retrieve and extract the requested information requires a manual search of all records held. An initial search revealed an approximate total of 419 Registered Sex Offenders in the areas you have requested information for.

A sample search took around 5 minutes for one record which would equate to approximately 34.917 hours (1 day, 10 hours and 55 mins) This takes the request over the cost threshold of 18 working hours and engages Section 12 (1) of the Act.

This letter constitutes a refusal notice under Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 with Section 12(1) of the act being applied

12. – (1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

Should you wish for the Force to continue with your request, a more accurate figure will be provided within a fee's notice. The cost will need to be paid by you, prior to any further investigation. Please advise if you wish to proceed.

Alternatively you are invited to refine your request to bring it within the cost threshold – perhaps by limiting your request to the number of Registered Sex Offenders housed in each of the areas mentioned.

Your attention is drawn to the enclosed review procedure, which details your right of complaint.
