Request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

I write in connection with your request for information, which was received by Nottinghamshire Police on 02/08/2013.

Following receipt of your request searches were conducted within Nottinghamshire Police to locate the information you require.

Please find below answers to your questions:-

Please will you supply me with details of income from mobile speed cameras for the years 2011 and 2012.

RESPONSE

Under S 1 (1) (a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), I can confirm that Nottinghamshire Police does hold some of the information you have requested.

The only income received by Nottinghamshire Police in relation to detections of speeding offences by speed cameras is where an individual attends and completes a Speed Awareness Course. An admin fee is returned to the originating Force which is used for the administration of the offences.

With regards to any fixed penalty ticket/conditional offers/speeding fines that are paid or fines issued at Court, the money goes to Central Government and not to the Police Force itself.

The admin fee returned to the Force for each completed course was £15.00 up until December 2010. From January 2011, this increased to £35 per course.

In 2011 the total fees received by Nottinghamshire Police in administration costs for individuals undertaking a Speed Awareness Course was £400,855.

In 2012 the total fees received by Nottinghamshire Police in administration costs for individuals undertaking a Speed Awareness Course was £393,400.
